

Alumni Weekend Activities

Everyone is welcome!

Co-sponsored by the Swarthmore College Office of Alumni Relations, the Classes of '56, '66, and '76, and an anonymous donor.

Thursday 8 p.m. HOOTENANNY Informal folk singing and playing led by Joe Hickerson, John Loven '70, Marti Booser Black '75, and others.
David Kemp Hall, second-floor lounge

---

Friday 10:30 a.m. FOLK OPEN MIKE organized by John Loven '70.
Sign-up starts at 10 a.m. All welcome to participate or just listen.
Science Center, Room 101

12 noon FOLK POWER LUNCH Science Center, Eldridge Commons

First Panel 1:30 to 3 p.m.
Second Panel 3:10 to 4:40 p.m.
COMMEMORATION OF RALPH RINZLER '56
(panel discussion) Ralph was Swarthmore's most famous folklorist and the founding director of the Smithsonian Festival of American Folklife. Panel members: Roger Abrahams '55, Robert Adler '56, Joe Hickerson, Diana Parker, Jeff Place, Jonathan Shahn '59, and Doc Watson.
Science Center, Room 101

4:45 p.m. INFORMAL FOLK SINGING AND PLAYING with Rinzler panel members and all others who wish to join in.
Science Center, Eldridge Commons

9 p.m. CONCERT BY DOC WATSON AND DAVID HOLT
in memory of Ralph Rinzler '56
Lang Performing Arts Center, Pearson-Hall Theatre

---

Saturday 9 p.m. FOLK DANCING FOR ALL AGES Squares, Contras, and English country dances called by April Blum and Emily Aubrey '89. All dances will be taught and walked through; no partner necessary; soft-soled shoes recommended. Music by Andy Gordon '71 (banjo), Jo Booser '71 (fiddle, flute), Marti Booser Black '75 (guitar, piano), Emily Aubrey '89 (fiddle), and others. To join the dance band, just drop in, or, better, tell Andy or Jo before Saturday.
Lang Performing Arts Center, Troy Dance Studio

---

Sunday 8:30 a.m. FOLK BREAKFAST JAM led by Joe Hickerson, Marti Booser Black '75, and others. All welcome to sing, play, chat, or just listen.
Sharples Dining Hall, West Dining Room